

Calvary Hi-Lights

When was the last time you changed for the better? I mean really changed. When was the last time God stepped into your life and convicted you of sin so deeply that you genuinely never want to go back to that behavior? How recently has your spouse noticed that you have become more patient, less angry, more evangelistic, or less self-centered?

If genuine repentance and change is not happening regularly in your life, it is time to remember that God does not redeem people through the blood of Christ and then leave them the way they were. The New Testament consistently encourages us to be moving toward Christ-like character and spiritual maturity. We are exhorted to stop being “babies” in our faith but to “go on to maturity” (Hebrews 5:11-6:1). The purpose of our efforts in evangelism and discipleship is so that “we may present everyone mature in Christ” (Colossians 1:28) Every Christian must work together to build up the body of Christ “until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood” (Ephesians 4:12-13).

Did you catch that last verse? Becoming more like Christ is a team sport, not something you are supposed to do all by yourself. You are dependent on the Christians around you for your spiritual growth and also responsible for helping them become more like Christ. How many relationships do you have where someone can keep you accountable, encourage you when you are struggling, and pray for you to grow toward maturity? Are you that person for someone else?
